A LITTLE BIT ABOUT US

GetSetta Events and Promotions is a young and dynamic company which was founded in 2015. It focuses on a wide spectrum of client solutions such as, Creative Arts and Entertainment activities, Administrative and Support Activities and Events Management. Although the founder of GE&P hails from North West, the business operates and is run in the Gauteng province. We aim to expand our networks and business operations and we are fully capable to provide our services outside of Gauteng to the rest of the country.

OUR VISION

At GEGP we aim to be the game changers of the industry. We strive to be the innovative creator of responsible social events through coordinating and managing them. We pride ourselves with excellence and community building opportunities that will positively change the lives of ordinary South Africans. We believe that wealth can be plowed in our communities by imparting knowledge and skills to the youth who are the future of this nation.

OUR MISSION

We believe that we are the most reliable and efficient service provider in the Southern Hemisphere. The quality of service that we provide speaks volume on how we run GESP and how we want to be positioned in the industry. Our aim is to provide our clients with experience worth value that is to the satisfaction of our clients.

OWNERSHIP

The company is owned 100% by 1 back female, her name is Dieketseng Mofokeng. She has a vast experience in events management and marketing from her previous employ. She has learned the importance of relationship building, and networking, which has taught her to identify and craft solutions suited for clients.
